Transforming Education Knowledge Hub

How to engage if you are not joining in person

There are all sorts of ways to participate in the Transforming Education Summit, even if you are not joining the meeting in person.

Information on opportunities for engagement are in the Transforming Education Summit Engagement Guidelines.

Watch the live

28-30 June so much is happening see the programme and connect live from UNESCO, Paris!

Share your thoughts in the discussion forums

Everyone is welcome to join discussions about the 5 Transforming Education Summit Thematic Action Tracks, please register to join the conversation.

See all consultations and upcoming events

Meetings are taking place all over the world check upcoming events to see what is happening, where and when.

Learn from a wealth of resources

Resources is where we will be posting useful, interesting and important documents from the Summit, you can use filters and categories to find the most relevant information.
Youth engagement in the Summit follows three principles:

- diversity in representation,
- inclusion of networks from the North and South, and
- diversity of voices by empowering the most marginalized youth.

As a youth you can join the call to share innovative ideas through a 30-second video.