

Youth Declaration – online consultation

19 July 2022

8:30 – 10:00 AM EDT / 2:30 – 4:00 PM CET

INTRODUCTION

The online youth consultation aims to hear from young people and include their voices in shaping the Youth Declaration that will be presented at the Transforming Education Summit, taking place in September 2022.

Key takeaways of the consultation will be collected and included in briefing reports shared with the UNESCO SDG4Youth Network Secretariat and the Office of the Secretary-General's Envoy on Youth.

This online consultation is being co-led by UNESCO/SDG4Youth, the Office of the Secretary-General's Envoy on Youth and the TES Secretariat, hosted by UNESCO.

EXPECTED OUTCOMES

Primary outcomes

- Gather young people's collective views on what transforming education should look like.
- Outline young people's collective recommendations to decision and policymakers, including governments, civil society, international organizations, the United Nations, and others on transforming education.
- Highlight young people's collective commitments and actions towards transforming education.

Secondary outcomes

- Gather young people's views on the priorities to address in the frame of the five action tracks.
